Reading Newsletter

By Mrs Moore

GSA Reading Army

In September, we would like to bring back adult reading volunteers at The Good Shepherd.

If you think you can give up to an hour a week, from September, please contact us as soon as possible.

Training given in September, flexible timings to suit you and subject to a CRB check.

HELP NEEDED

Having a clear out this summer? Our library is in need of good quality books, so please think of us. Thank you for all donations so far.

Book amnesty: there are so many books missing from our library. Please check at home and return as soon as possible. Put them in the box in the reception area or return to the library. Thank you.

Summer Reading Challenge

Step 1: Visit your local library and sign up to the summer reading challenge.

Step 2: Read books and collect rewards.

Step 3: Complete challenge and bring your certificate into Mrs Moore (6AM).

Step 4: Earn a bookmark.

Please send in photographs of your children reading this summer.

Email: office@goodshepherd.notts.sch.uk

Did you know?

129 children from Y2-6 attended 'Rock up and Read' this academic year. We love reading!

Did you know?

Looking for something to read this summer?

7 tips for keeping children reading through the summer holidays:

1. Join the summer reading challenge.
2. Dive into summer themed books.
3. Organise summer reading activities.
4. Incorporate reading into holiday travel.
5. Send letters and postcards to family and friends and read them together.
6. Adults be a reading role model for others.
7. Keep it fun!

Matilda, Olivia and Sam have some great recommendations for you this month. Firstly, the Land of Roar series by Jenny McLachlan is about two children exploring the world and their imagination comes true. Sam also said that his grandparents live near the illustrator, Ben Mantle. How cool!

Their second recommendation is Space Band by Tom Fletcher. The band compete in a black hole in space. Rock and roll!
Visit your library to read these books.

Hugo recommends Diary of a Wimpy Kid books and he has just finished his first one. Here he is with his amazing book cover that he made. Hugo cannot wait to go to the library for the second book in the series.

Emilia recommends The Danger Gang by Tom Fletcher. This book is about some mischievous children who enjoy danger and dangerous situations.

Thank you

A HUGE thank you to our wonderful PTA for supporting us with our Reading Rewards this term. Keep an eye out for the winners during the next KS2 assembly.
